

the banker they are working with. In turn, community banks realize their success revolves around the overall growth of the community. It's a reciprocal relationship in which the small business and the community bank depend on each other for future growth; neither can be successful without the other. Independent Community Bankers of America, ICBA, Chairman Terry Jorde explained the relationship well when he said, "Each of our nearly 5,000 bank members is a shining example of how community banks are still joined at the hip to our communities."

In addition to his many work contributions and other honors, Dale was responsible for establishing the Hutto Chamber of Commerce and also served on the Hutto School Board for many years. Having had the opportunity to witness firsthand his contributions to the Hutto and Round Rock communities, I am certain his impact will continue to be felt after his retirement.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of myself, my constituents, Union State Bank, and the communities of Round Rock, Hutto, Georgetown, Florence, Liberty Hill, and Killeen, I would like to thank Dale for 50 years of distinguished service to the banking industry and the communities throughout Central Texas. Although his daily presence at Union State Bank will be sorely missed, I look forward to his continued contributions to the banking industry. I thank Dale for his service and friendship, and wish him the utmost happiness and success in all of his future endeavors.

IN RECOGNITION OF MR. MERRILL WORCESTER FOR HIS GENEROUS HOLIDAY CONTRIBUTIONS TO ARLINGTON NATIONAL CEMETERY

HON. JEFF MILLER

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 20, 2006

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Mr. Speaker, it is a great honor for me to rise today to extend my congratulations to Mr. Merrill Worcester, an American who believes in paying homage to the memory of veterans who gave all in the name of freedom.

As the owner of the Worcester Wreath Company of Harrington, Maine, Mr. Worcester oversees the workings of his holiday decoration company. Thirteen years ago, he could think of nothing better to do with his surplus of over 4,000 Christmas wreaths than bring them to Arlington National Cemetery. Mr. Worcester had visited Arlington at the age of 12 and dreamed of somehow honoring fallen soldiers.

Each year since 1993, Mr. Worcester has brought trucks holding over 5,000 Christmas wreaths to Arlington and has joined with hundreds of volunteers from all walks of military and civilian life in placing the wreaths on the headstones. The wreathlaying event continues to be one that carries a great message of thanks and gratitude to those who gave their lives as well as a reminder to their families during the holidays that they will never be forgotten.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the U.S. Congress, I would like to offer my sincere thanks to a man who truly understands the nature of giving and works to continually commemorate the giving of the ultimate sacrifice—life—in order to achieve freedom.

IN HONOR OF JEAN JOSEPH SIBILLY 1889-1997

HON. DONNA M. CHRISTENSEN

OF VIRGIN ISLANDS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 20, 2006

Mrs. CHRISTENSEN. Mr. Speaker, each year in mid-July, the French Community on St. Thomas, in my District, observes French Heritage Week, commemorating the storming of the Bastille on July 14, 1789 which marked the beginning of the French Revolution, with a week of French flavored activities.

This year, the French Heritage Week Committee is posthumously honoring Jean Joseph Sibilly, patriarch of the French community of Estate Elizabeth on St. Thomas.

I ask my colleagues to join me today to honor and acknowledge the innumerable contributions this great visionary made to the Virgin Islands in general and his community in particular.

Jean Joseph Sibilly was born on the French Caribbean island of St. Barthelemy on January 5, 1889, but grew up and received his education on the island of Guadeloupe. Trained in agriculture and animal husbandry, he emigrated to St. Thomas in 1912 and established residence on the north side of the island, an area predominantly occupied by other French immigrants.

At age 23, this agricultural entrepreneur purchased Estate Elizabeth and a few years later another 268 acres with 12 other north side families in nearby Estate Lerkenlund to be used for farming. This area has had a long legacy as until recently the French north side farmers were still the primary source for fresh produce.

He was a self taught skilled engineer and builder credited for planning and supervising the road system on the north side of St. Thomas, the construction of numerous homes and public buildings, and was legendary for his ability to draw a straight line without the aid of conventional instruments.

Above all else, he was a humanitarian and community leader. His generosity is exemplified by the large tracks of land he donated to the Catholic Church and the local government. The community's Catholic Church, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, and adjacent cemetery, as well as an elementary school, were made possible through his philanthropy. Not a politician or elected official, he was however influential in local elections and served as the guardian of good government in the particular interest of the people of the north side of the island.

On March 9, 1973, the Tenth Legislature of the Virgin Islands approved Resolution 3395 which renamed the Robert Herrick Elementary School the Joseph Sibilly Elementary School in honor of his great community spirit, generous donations, and good deeds.

A devout Roman Catholic, his religious beliefs were reflected in his daily life. In recognition of his humanitarian spirit, The Virgin Islands Daily News on his passing wrote, "Joseph Sibilly was in a sense an Old Testament man, a patriarch with vision and strength and generosity. He left for all of us a valuable legacy, the knowledge that ultimately a man serves himself best when he serves others".

Jean Joseph Sibilly's generosity, considerateness, wisdom, foresight, pride in and love for his fellow man deserve our recognition honor today.
